The "Pokemon" phenomenon: on a TV screen near you

By Candace Havens
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

It may be happening in your neighborhood. It could be next door or even in your own home. Children's rooms are clean. Homework is done in record time, and siblings are kind to each other.

It isn't a virus, although it is spreading faster than any flu. These miraculous changes are due to 150 little pocket monsters, better known as Pokemon.

Pikachu, Jigglypuff, Charizard and friends are invading homes around the world. There are videos, books, CDs, figurines, stuffed animals and trading cards. Moms are discovering children will do almost anything to get their hands on a pack of Pokemon cards or one of the video games.

And it all started with a little Japanese cartoon. On the small screen, "Pokemon" (pronounced "po kay mahn") is the highest rated television series for kids ages 2-11 in the United States. It airs daily on The WB Network.

The cartoon appeals to kids on several levels, and with 150 different monsters, there is at least one to which a child can relate. "One of the reasons I think the show is so successful," Friedman says, "is it is a world that only kids understand. In the broadest sense, it is empowering to kids because it is a whole deep, rich world just for them. They can learn and master it over time. The show is about friendship, fair play, nurturing and collecting. And there's a theme of going after what you believe in, in every episode."

One thing that has pushed the phenomenon along is the success of the trading cards. One would be hard pressed to find a playground in America where kids aren't playing the trading card game or swapping the cards.

Stores are selling out of the cards almost as fast as they come in. "We're printing as much Pokemon as fast as we can," Pucik says. "We've sourced new suppliers and manufacturers and hope to be better able to satisfy the demand over the next few months. We also allocate product to retailers so we can keep geographic distribution as even as possible. This is an attempt to force the markets to keep prices near suggested retail price."

Since the trading card game debuted in January 1999, cardmaker Wizards of the Coast has sold more than 2 million copies of the two-player starter games in the United States, and that number does not include the booster packs. Nintendo's sales of Game Boys have increased more than 300 percent since it put several Pokemon games on the market. As a whole, the Pokemon industry has made more than $5 billion. That is a lot of Pokemon.

"The Practice" star rises from soap opera

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

Wasn't Lisa Gay Hamilton of "The Practice" once a cast member on "As the World Turns" a few years ago? She played a bar owner. -Sonja Hollen, Charlotte, N.C.

Before joining "The Practice," Hamilton played Dr. Laura Reed in 1996 on "One Life to Live," but never was a regular on "As the World Turns."

Whatever became of singer-actor Harve Presnell, singer-actress Claudine Longet and trumpeter Al Hirt? -Harry Lazor, Kellyville, Okla.

At 66, Presnell has never been busier. He had a recurring role as Lois' estranged father in "Lois & Clark: The New Adventures of Superman" and a prominent role in the 1996 hit movie "Fargo." Since then, he completed nine feature films and TV movies, including a role as Gen. George C. Marshall in "Saving Private Ryan." Presnell has made several TV guest appearances and presently co-stars as Mr. Parker in NBC's "The Pretender."

Trumpeter Hirt died of liver cancer last April at age 76, and Longet's career was permanently sidelined by scandal. In 1976, she fatally shot her lover, professional skier Spider Sabich, who allegedly was preparing to leave her. Andy Williams' then-wife served 30 days in jail for criminal negligence.

At last report, Longet, now 57, is remarried and lives in Aspen, Colo.

Why do cartoon characters have a thumb and only three fingers instead of four? -Eva Elder, Evansville, Ind.

Professional cartoonists including Matt Groening of "The Simpsons" say not having to draw the motions for that fourth finger adds up to a measurable savings in the amount of time it takes to animate a cartoon.

In what sitcom did Betty White play a woman who worked with her daughter and granddaughter in a restaurant? -Josh Maslyn, Canandaigua, N.Y.

"Maybe This Time" (ABC, 1995-96), co-starring Marie Osmond.

The reader who recently asked about Paul Lynde playing an Indian chief on "F Troop" may have been thinking of his hysterical performance in the comedy "The Villain." -Gail Inglet, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

Dozens of readers who remember Lynde's work as Nervous Elk in the 1979 movie comedy agree with you.

Can you deal with one last letter about Mark Harmon and his sister? Besides the fact that John DeLorean is an ex-husband to both Cristina Ferrare and Kelly Harmon, Mark also has a sister named Kris — Nelson, Tracy's mother. Perhaps your reader confused Cristina with Kris. -Tim K. via e-mail.

Could be. Kristin Harmon Nelson Tinker is Ricky Nelson's ex-wife. Thanks for writing.

SUNDAY'S BEST BETS

Movie:
Sister Act 2: Back in the Habit
6 P.M. ON ABC

Whoopi Goldberg returns as Deloris, the singer who shook up a convent while hiding from the mob in "Sister Act." This time, the sisters need her to help keep their school open. Her mission: Create an award-winning choir that will bring down the house in state competition. Kathy Najimy, Maggie Smith and Mary Wickes reprise their roles from the first "Act." Barnard Hughes also stars.

Third Watch
7 P.M. ON NBC

Davis (Coby Bell) stops shrugging off Sully's (Skipp Sudduth) talk of bad Mondays when the day brings a decomposed body and a very young rape victim. Kim (Kim Raver) tries to help a teen-age prostitute (guest star Nathalie Paulding), who takes advantage of her. A gunshot victim sparks a conflict over procedure between rookie paramedic Carlos and old-timer Doc.

Biography of the Millennium: 100 People ... 1,000 Years
7 P.M. ON A&E

More than 360 scholars, journalists and politicians were given a daunting task recently: Pick the people who have had the greatest influence on our world in the past 10 centuries. The result is this two-part special counting down the top 100 as chosen by this group. Interspersed with the mini-profiles are observations from such familiar folk as first lady Hillary Rodham Clinton, actor Robin Williams, author Margaret Drabble, United Nations Secretary-General Kofi Annan and former U.S. Surgeon General C. Everett Koop. Part 2, which concludes with the unveiling of the Person of the Millennium, airs Monday.

FINAL RUN

NFL Football
7:15 P.M. ON ESPN

In the NFC Central where three teams could qualify for the playoffs, a division game squandered in October could have disastrous consequences come December. With that in mind, the Battle of the Bay should be a rock-'em sock-'em affair when Tampa Bay visits Green Bay. The Bucs rely on a sturdy defense that was tops in the NFC in 1998. Defensive lineman Warren Sapp can control a game by himself, but tonight he'll have his hands full trying to corral Packers quarterback Brett Favre. Favre is a master at improvisation, using his strong arm to make plays while on the run.

Movie: Final Run
8 P.M. ON CBS

Computers are wonderful things, but there's something to be said for the human touch. A couple learn that the hard way when the computer-controlled train they're traveling on loses control, turning what was supposed to be a relaxing excursion into a wild ride of terror. Robert Urich ("Love Boat: The Next Wave") and Patricia Kalember ("Sisters") star in this new thriller directed by Armand Mastroianni ("First Daughter").

Early results look good for "Short"; media buzz may not benefit Browne

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

There's lots of gossip now that the new talk show season is under way. Rookie" The Martin Short Show"" appears to be off to a good start, although there are some who feel it's much more of a late-night show than a daytime talker. "Short "is seen around the country in different time periods, and some insiders see it as a natural competitor for David Letterman and Jay Leno.

Speaking of Letterman, "Electronic Media" magazine reports the late-night host is still biting the hand that feeds him. This time, he used the proposed Viacom-CBS merger as an excuse to tease his prospective Viacom boss, Sumner Redstone.

Letterman phoned Redstone on the air and sparred with the Viacom CEO's secretary, Harriet. Later, he realized he had broken FCC rules by not telling her she was being broadcast. Luckily, he was told by the folks upstairs that the secretary didn't require a warning because "we're family now." Viacom should know "the family" is one of Letterman's favorite targets.

Talk the Talk

The Viacom-CBS proposal would make strange bedfellows of radio hosts Howard Stern and his antithesis, Dr. Laura Schlessinger.

Schlessinger is so strongly anti-Stern that she dropped a show she was developing with a CBS production company after learning the network was airing a Stern talk show. Instead, she signed with Paramount (a Viacom company) to host a talker for fall 2000. If the merger is approved, she'd not only be under the same roof with Stern, she'd also be on the same team as rival psychologist and TV talk show host Dr. Joy Browne.

Martin Short

The inside buzz on Browne's show is not terribly encouraging. Word is that execs at CBS aren't thrilled with the show's early results or programming.

Also feeling a lot of pressure, reports say, is the staff at the new Paramount version of "Leeza"." It seems the new syndicator is pushing the staff to produce shows on up-to-the-minute current events, making it difficult to do much advance planning. One source says the "Leeza" crew hardly knew what the show's premiere would be a week before its launch.

Richard Simmons' talk show, "Dream Maker"," has abandoned plans to produce in Las Vegas in favor of Los Angeles. Simmons and most of his staff of 70 live in Los Angeles, and the commute was creating problems. Most television personnel fly to Las Vegas for specials and pilots, then return home to Southern California. But some of them need to remain full time, making it difficult to staff an entire talk show.

Simmons wasn't the first to try a show from the glitzy city. "Jenny Jones"" started out in Las Vegas but found a better home in Chicago.

Monday's Best Bets

The King of Queens
7 P.M. ON CBS

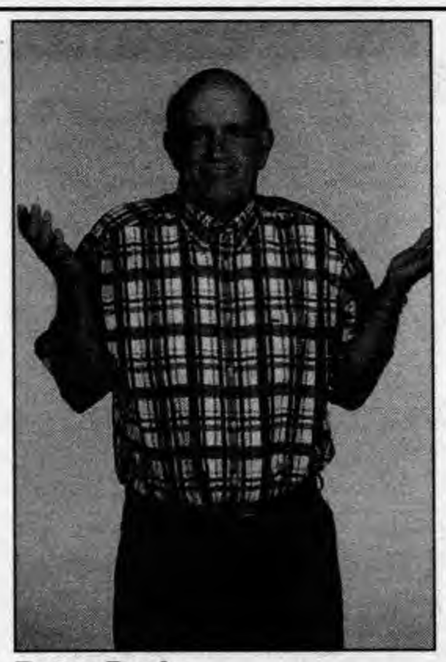
Serving as godfather to Deacon and Kelly's (Victor Williams, Merrin Dungey) new baby is an offer Doug (Kevin James) can't refuse. Carrie (Leah Remini), however, fears the role of godmother carries too much responsibility and says no. But soon the guilt takes over, and she's desperate to find a way to get asked again in "Parent Trapped."

Biography of the Millennium: 100 People ... 1,000 Years
7 P.M. ON A&E

A&E has kept Part 2 of this special under very tight wraps, so nobody will know until it airs whom the channel's panel of experts has selected as Person of the Millennium. As in Part 1, the conclusion combines the countdown of influential people with comments from modern-day movers and shakers.

NFL Football
8 P.M. ON ABC

The New York Jets probably think NFL stands for No Fun League. Quarterback Vinny Testaverde ruptured an Achilles' tendon in Week 1, and the Jets' Super Bowl dreams went down with him. Now the Jets are faced with playing the league's second-toughest schedule without their top offensive weapon, something no team can look forward to when facing the Jacksonville Jaguars. Picked by many as a Super Bowl contender, the Jags offense is triggered by quarterback Mark Brunell, who tossed 20 touchdowns last season, one that ended in disappointment in a playoff loss to the Jets. Will Jacksonville get revenge?



Peter Boyle
EVERYBODY LOVES RAYMOND

Everybody Loves Raymond
8 P.M. ON CBS

Are Ray and Debra (Ray Romano, Patricia Heaton) getting too old for great sex? They try to blame their recent mediocre mattress experiences on the complications of maturity — kids, lack of sleep — until they find out what Frank and Marie's (Peter Boyle, Doris Roberts) sex life is like.

Movie: My Little Assassin
8 P.M. ON LIFE

Gabrielle Anwar ("Scent of a Woman," "Wild Hearts Can't Be Broken") stars in this new drama as a young woman who meets and falls in love with Fidel Castro. She becomes pregnant with his child and is kidnapped, drugged and has the baby taken from her. Federal agents, including her own mother, convince her that Castro ordered the child killed and capitalize on her anger, persuading her to train as an assassin and take him out.

Malcolm & Eddie
8:30 P.M. ON UPN

Malcolm and Eddie (Malcolm Jamal-Warner, Eddie Griffin) try to get away from it all by taking a free cruise. There's a catch, of course: They have to listen to a sales pitch for timeshare condominiums. But they soon find out that you really do get what you pay for — or don't — in "Ship Outta Luck."

TUESDAY'S BEST BETS

Spin City
7 P.M. ON ABC

Mike (Michael J. Fox), hoping to make things work with Nikki (Connie Britton), tricks her into attending couples counseling in "These Shoes Were Made for Cheatin'." The mayor (Barry Bostwick) may be tempted to do another kind of cheating when some eighth-graders challenge him to take one of their tests. Alan Ruck and Michael Boatman also star.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

"Ingrid Bergman" remembers the Swedish-born actress who helped make "Casablanca" one of the most beloved films of all time. But Ilsa Lund Laszlo was just one in a string of well-chosen parts she played, including the title role in "Joan of Arc." Seeing her as a saint in that 1948 film may have contributed to the public's shocked reaction to her affair with director Roberto Rossellini. The pair went to Europe to escape the outrage; after they split, Bergman made a triumphant, Oscar-winning Hollywood comeback in "Anastasia."

Movie: Ricochet
7:05 P.M. ON TBS

John Lithgow and Denzel Washington star in this 1991 suspense film about a deranged killer who gets out of prison determined to destroy the former rookie cop who put him behind bars. Ice-T, Kevin Pollak ("Work With Me"), Lindsay Wagner and Mary Ellen Trainor ("Lethal Weapon") also star.

Sela Ward and Bill Campbell
ONCE AND AGAIN

That '70s Show
7:30 P.M. ON FOX

Eric (Topher Grace) suffers a teen's worst nightmare in "The Velvet Rope" when he and his friends visit a hot dance club and he's the only one not allowed in. His newly unemployed dad's (Kurtwood Smith) ego is also taking a beating, and a well-meaning Kitty (Debra Jo Rupp) makes things worse by giving him a book on how to look for work. Ashton Kutcher and Mila Kunis also star.

Nova
8 P.M. ON PBS

Traveling through time isn't just the stuff of sci-fi to physicist Kip Thorne, who is avidly studying the possibility of wormholes — shortcuts through space that could also be portals through time. "Time Travel" talks with Thorne, his friend and fellow physicist Stephen Hawking and others about this controversial field of study. Carl Sagan, who sought Thorne's help with the book "Contact," also appears in an interview taped shortly before his death.

Once and Again
9 P.M. ON ABC

When Rick and Lily (Bill Campbell, Sela Ward) start coming out of the closet with their feelings, Eli (Shane West) tries his best to keep his mom (Susanna Thompson) from finding out Dad has someone new. Judy (Marin Hinkle) is also less than thrilled about the budding romance after meeting Rick for the first time. Julia Whelan also stars.

WEDNESDAY'S BEST BETS

Cosby
7 P.M. ON CBS

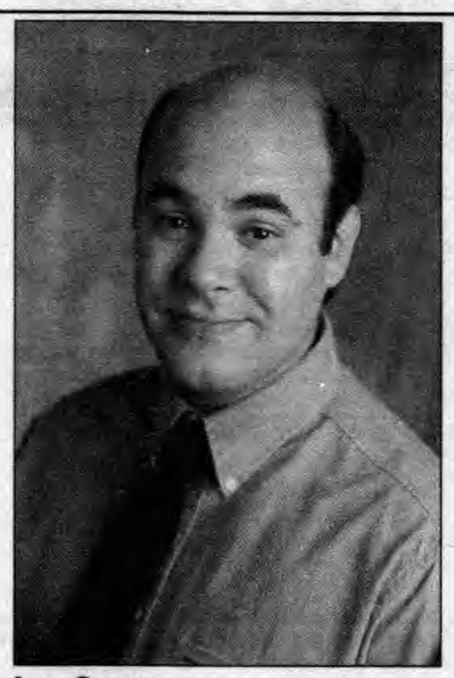
At Hilton's (Bill Cosby) urging, Griffin (Doug E. Doug) speaks out against the outdated textbooks in his classroom. His letter to the editor is printed in "The New York Times," and soon he's being asked to appear before a Senate subcommittee. But Mr. Fleming (guest star Wallace Shawn) fears Griffin's activism will result in nothing but trouble in "Book 'Em, Griff O."

Movie: Tommy
7 P.M. ON VH1

Roger Daltrey stars as the deaf and blind youth who becomes an object of worship in this wild, weird adaptation of the Who's rock opera. In addition to Daltrey and other members of the band — including drummer Keith Moon as perverted Uncle Ernie — the film has a galaxy of movie and music superstars, from Elton John and Tina Turner to Ann-Margret and Jack Nicholson.

The Norm Show
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

The death of his father is traumatic for Danny (Ian Gomez) on two levels: the death itself and Danny's discovery that his dad was leading a double life. Norm (Norm Macdonald) is shaken up, too, as the man's passing forces him to confront his own fear of the Grim Reaper. Laurie Metcalf and Artie Lange also star in "Norm vs. Death."



Ian Gomez
THE NORM SHOW

American Photography: A Century of Images
8 P.M. ON PBS

The camera has done more than record the 20th century; it's also shaped it. Photos have swayed public opinion toward our wars, united us in celebration and mourning, and fueled our consumer culture. This three-hour special shows how it all happened, from photography's early days through the rise of the picture press to the medium's role in the upheavals of the past 40 years.

Movie: Lethal Vows
8 P.M. ON CBS

Nobody suspects foul play when a young wife dies from a mysterious illness. Nobody, that is, except the woman who used to be married to the victim's husband. She's sure he had something to do with the death. Now all she has to do is convince the authorities that this upstanding member of the community isn't what he seems, and that she's not just a scorned woman out for revenge on her ex. Marg Helgenberger, John Ritter and Megan Gallagher star in this new thriller.

Nunsense 3: The Jamboree
8 P.M. ON NASH

Vicki Lawrence ("Mama's Family") dons a veil as Sister Mary Amnesia, the forgetful country music hopeful, in Dan Goggin's second musical sequel to his off-Broadway hit Nunsense. In this two-hour encore special, the good sister embarks on a promotional tour for her debut album.

FRIDAY'S BEST BETS

Ryan Caulfield: Year One
7 P.M. ON FOX

The "Pilot" of this new drama introduces a story line that's worked for Fox before: the very young cop (remember "21 Jump Street"?). The early buzz on this show is not as favorable, but the star's boyish good looks, the abundant action and the youth-skewed comic relief just might grab viewers. TV rookie Sean Maher plays the rookie cop of the title, a 19-year-old just starting out on the Philadelphia force. He has a baptism of fire in his first week as he comes upon a particularly gruesome crime scene.

Biography
7 P.M. ON A&E

The top scorers on the American Film Institute's "Legends" list are celebrated in back-to-back encore profiles. "Katharine Hepburn: On Her Own Terms" traces the long career of the four-time Oscar winner who has done everything from screwball comedy to period drama. "Humphrey Bogart: Behind the Legend" remembers the unforgettable star of "Casablanca," "The Caine Mutiny," "Key Largo" and the film that paired him with Hepburn and won him an Oscar: "The African Queen."

Odd Man Out
7:30 P.M. ON ABC

In "The Road to Caracas," the family takes in Jordan's (Jessica Capshaw) 15-year-old client, a model from Venezuela, for a short stay. The move has Julia's (Markie Post) blessing, but Paige (Natalia Cigliuti) is less than thrilled with the gorgeous, outspoken house guest. Jordan tries to defuse the situation by assigning Andrew to chaperon the girl — a risky move given his own hormonal status.

Natalia Cigliuti
ODD MAN OUT

Harsh Realm
8 P.M. ON FOX

While Hobbes and Pinocchio (Scott Bairstow, D.B. Sweeney) are fighting to escape from the bounty hunters who have taken them prisoner, Sophie (Samantha Mathis) is fighting for answers, refusing to accept the military's official story of her fiance's death.

Movie: Rudy
8 P.M. ON TMC

Sean Astin stars in the title role as a middling student and athlete from a working-class background who dreams of playing football at Notre Dame. Hollywood embellishes a bit on the details, but Rudy's story of determination against all odds is true. Ned Beatty, Charles S. Dutton and Lili Taylor co-star in the 1993 drama from director David Anspaugh and writer Angelo Pizzo.

Movie: Carlito's Way
8 P.M. ON USA

Academy Award-winning actor Al Pacino stars in this complex 1993 drama, based on two novels by Edwin Torres, about a Puerto Rican crime czar trying to go straight after his release from prison. Pacino is excellent in the title role, but a virtually unrecognizable Sean Penn steals the show as a sleazy lawyer.

SATURDAY'S BEST BETS

The Love Chronicles
6 P.M. ON A&E

Are men really from Mars? How does love become obsession? Are arranged marriages more successful than love matches? Those are among the questions addressed in this new weekly series, which looks at the history, science and sociology behind our most talked-about, sung-about emotion. The opener, takes love into the lab in an effort to understand "Sexual Chemistry." Actor John Corbett hosts.

Movie: Apollo 13
7 P.M. ON ABC

Ron Howard's dramatic retelling of a real-life space drama earned nine Academy Award nominations, winning for sound and editing. Tom Hanks, Bill Paxton and Kevin Bacon star as the astronauts whose 1970 mission to the moon becomes a terrifying life-or-death battle when an oxygen tank explodes. Faced with the triple threat of running out of oxygen, choking on carbon dioxide or freezing to death, they struggle to stay alive and make it home. Kathleen Quinlan and Ed Harris also star.

Early Edition
7 P.M. ON CBS

Gary and Detective Toni Brigatti (Kyle Chandler, Constance Marie) join forces to stop a jewel thief, masquerading as a society couple to lure him with a diamond pendant. But the diamond turns out to be a fake, and Brigatti could lose her job unless Gary can find the real jewel and the real thief. Fortunately, he has a head start in "The Iceman Taketh."

Tom Hanks
APOLLO 13

Backstreet Boys in Concert
9 P.M. ON DISN

A.J., Brian, Howie, Kevin and Nick, a k a the red-hot Backstreet Boys, work their musical magic at a New York theater in this encore concert special. Watching it on TV gives you a definite advantage over the 1,800 fans in the audience: You'll be able to hear the music above all the screaming. Songs include "Quit Playing Games (With My Heart)," "I Want It That Way" and the other hits that have propelled the Boys to worldwide stardom.

Paul McCartney & Friends Live: PETA's Millennium Concert
9 P.M. ON VH1

The title is a misnomer; this concert was taped last month. The McCartney part is true, though; he's host and performer, assisted in the former job by Alec Baldwin, Jamie Lee Curtis, Woody Harrelson and Ellen DeGeneres, and in the latter by the B-52's, Chrissie Hynde and Sarah McLachlan, among others. The event was part of People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals' awards gala, which included a special prize in memory of McCartney's wife, Linda, a longtime animal-rights supporter. Pamela Anderson Lee won for her anti-fur activism and efforts on behalf of exotic animals.
